AIRLINE ARRIVALS AND DEPARTURES INFORMATION ON REVERSE SIDE

AIRLINE travel - important notes:

- Check with your airline and arrange/pay for roundtrip UNACCOMPANIED MINOR status for your child, if applicable. Each airline has a different age limit when a child MUST fly as an unaccompanied minor. Use Alan Ordway's or Steve Sudduth's name as the person meeting your camper at the airport.
- Many airlines charge extra fees for checked luggage. Pre-pay this fee when booking your child's return trip. If you are unable to do so, the chaperones will pay this fee and camp will bill you accordingly.
- All times listed as U.S. Eastern Daylight time.
- Refer to PREFERRED TIMES shown on transportation form (enclosed) prior to ordering your tickets.
- If you are unable to schedule your child's flights within the PREFERRED TIMES shown on the transportation form, please contact the camp office directly.
- Campers traveling by plane should wear a camp shirt for easy identification.
- The charge for a chaperoned travel includes camp counselors (who meet your child at the gate whenever possible, or at the exit to security), bus/van to & from camp, tips, cartage of baggage, and meals (also over-night accommodations June 28th or July 22nd for Western USA and International arrivals).
- Chaperons are available to assist in Portland, ME (PWM) and Boston, MA (BOS). Other arrival cities will require ticketing a through flight to Portland or Boston. If clearing customs and/or making connections, the camper should either travel with older, experienced campers or be ticketed as an Unaccompanied Minor.
