Wyonegonic Season 2014

Dear Friends,

We can show photos of sailing, tennis, horseback riding and shaping treasures in pottery class. We can post camper smiles on a mountain top, leaping for a swing on the ropes course, or joy in singing in the musical show,

BUT, . . . How can we capture what really happens at camp? . . . the growth, the confidence, the resilience, the independence, the appreciation for the environment and people. The friends they have met from across the states and from different continents are significant. Snapshots of scenes from summer tell part of the experience but how do we share the real story?

As alumnae, you know best because you have had the Wyonegonic Experience. You have reaped the value at different stages of your life and woven the rewards into your personal journey. Help us tell the story to those families who need to know the values of the camp experience. Tell the story to adults for interested staff whom you think would be an excellent role model for children.

As Charles Elliott of Harvard said over a century ago, "the outdoors needs to be a part of every child's education."

The Sudduths

The Sudduth Family

Sudduth Family –
Susie and Tom Hammond with Natalie and Carter; Steve, Sami and Carol Sudduth;
Becky and David Sudduth with Ellia and Lucas

We are pleased that David Sudduth has joined our year-round staff. David has spent the last 25 years working for Vail Resorts in the area of group sales, marketing and PR. He has also worked for the Breckenridge Ski School. David and his family live in Breckenridge CO and they join us for the summer season, Becky as our lead photographer; their children as campers.

Steve Sudduth is currently President of the American Camp Association, New England whose offices are located in Lexington MA.

Inauguration in New Hampshire -
Carol Schumpert Sudduth, Sami Sudduth, Sara DeMatteo, Susie Sudduth Hammond, Rachel Kelly, Whit Ryan, Jenn Hollis Perkins, Ali D'Agostino, Karen Grey, Barbie Atwood Cobb, Steve Sudduth, Dawn and Chris Wentworth

In March at the annual conference of ACA New England, Steve was elected president of The American Camp Association New England Affiliate (ACANE) for a three year term. Steve has been actively involved in professional leadership for over a decade. He has served on the ACANE Board of Directors for 12 years prior to becoming the Board President. He chaired the ACA National organization Government Relations and Public Policy Committee for 6 years. In Maine, he was President of the Maine Youth Camp Association (MYCA) for 2 consecutive terms. His current leadership position with ACANE was once held by his Mother from 1989-1992. They become the first parent/child combination to lead the organization in ACANE's history. To support and congratulate Steve during his indoctrination, many Wyonegonic Key Staff came to the conference.

"My first day of camp as a 10 year old I was a mess, but every single person was welcoming and this eased my fears and I quickly felt at home."

"My daughter has found herself at camp. Thank you for such a joyful and relaxing place."

Wyonegonic Trip Leaders

Whether it is a hike up a mountain, or slicing your bow across white caps on a lake or meandering down a Maine river, campers have tales to tell when they return to camp from their wilderness trips. The experience does not fade away and often motivates them to conquer other outdoor challenges. Some of these experiences are a day trip and most are between 2-5 days out in the wilderness. Their trip leaders are a catalyst and very important to the quality of the experience. Wyonegonic hires 8 trip leaders each summer who are well trained and certified to lead campers in the small group setting.

Cook at what a sampling of Wyo Trip leaders are doing today . . .

Will Norton – Summer 2014 hut person at Lake of the Clouds/Mt. Washington and Galehead Hut this Fall.

Kristin Totman – just completed her travels after camp on her return to New Zealand

In Camp Outdoor Curriculum -

Prior to going on trips all new campers enjoy some introductory exposure and instruction in canoeing, ecology and campcraft skills.

JMW, MW, JMG

Wyonegonic has continued to use the curriculum developed by the state of Maine for learning outdoor living skills in the summer camp setting. How many of you achieved your JMW – Junior Maine Woodsman; MW – Maine Woodsman; JMG – Junior Maine Guide? Thanks to the counselors who motivated Intermediate and Senior Campers to learn this curriculum, we had more campers than usual taking part in these programs. Hopefully this is the beginning for understanding their role as stewards in the future.

Ruth Wyman & Gail O'Day

Missy Lindsey and her husband Drew Sanborn were featured photographers in Norway Maine in September, where some of their best works were displayed. Natalie took her first ½ steps that week and is now walking in celebration of her first birthday. Sami and Lo have now traveled on to Colorado and have ski jobs in Summit Count for the winter season. As recent college graduates, why not?

Rachel Kelly is juggling a toddler, dog, husband, PHD prep and some part time work for Wyonegonic. She and her family reside in Littleton CO. Ben Clapham enjoyed scaring many people on the streets of Waltham in his Batman outfit. This was Ben's version of Wyoween. He is now a service advisor at Kia in the UK. Ceidleigh Bryce is returning from S Korea to the Big White Ski Area in Canada to work the winter ski season. Cori Slaven will audition for "America's Got Talent". This is a gift that can be passed along to campers who might find the Wyonegonic Experience a positive step on the journey to adulthood. This is a gift that will benefit the entire camp community and help them understand the importance of reaching out to others less fortunate. One by one we can reach our goal.*

Summer 2015

Campers

June 24-August 11, 2015

3 ½ week Session I – June 24-July 18

3 ½ week Session II – July 18-August 11

7 week Session – June 24 – August 11

Enrollment procedure: At this time, we have received over 100 registrations for Summer 2015. Wyonegonic guarantees a 2014 camper's space until November 1. There are tuition incentives November 1 or December 31 if tuition is paid in full by that date.

Meantime, we dialog with prospective families that have visited or expressed interest by phone or email. Many new families have enrolled, if we know space will be available at their age group. As you might guess most new campers are 8-12. The past few year's returnees in Senior are high and there is less room for new campers. Normally we have 5-8 new campers in the Senior age group. As space becomes available we utilize a wait list that is managed by date we hear from the family.

A registration form is on our website or a form can be mailed if you call the camp office 207-452-2051
